Single Family on 21.50 Acres

Tofino, Tofino, British Columbia

Tucked away on the wild West Coast lies a 21.5 acre private island sanctuary where nature sets the rhythm of life, from wind in the cedars to waves crashing on the rocky shore. More than a destination, this is the definition of the West Coast lifestyle: serene, self-sufficient, and soul-stirring. At its heart is a cozy, architect-designed home with three bedrooms and two bathrooms, crafted for comfort and connection to the land. Expansive windows frame unparalleled coastal views, while a nearby guest cabin with a loft offers space for friends and family. Five unique sitting areas invite quiet moments and stunning views of the mossy forests, sunlit coves, and starlit skies. A trail system winds through the lush island, encouraging daily exploration and reflection. Completely off-grid, the island blends sustainable living with modern ease, freedom and a lighter footprint. Whether you're gathering, or simply being, this is where the wild meets the wonderful.
