Single Family on 3.98 Acres

McMurdo, Golden, British Columbia

A true work of art, this extraordinary residence set on 4 private acres w/ panoramic views of the Purcell Mtns which back onto crown land. Masterfully designed by internationally renowned architect Brian MacKay-Lyons of MacKay-Lyons Sweetapple Architects, this home exemplifies harmony between structure & setting. Spanning over 3,000 sq. ft., the home features 3 beds, 2.5 baths, a sauna, & elegantly detailed living spaces that connect seamlessly to the outdoors. The upper level is dedicated to open-concept living, where natural light floods through expansive windows. Premium features include soapstone countertops, clear hemlock millwork, and high-end Wolf and Sub-Zero appliances. Thoughtful touches such a Rumford wood-burning fireplace and custom steelwork created by artist Paul Reimer, add refined character. Hansgrohe fixtures, water purification, & climate control systems reflect exceptional attention to comfort. The corten steel exterior not only provides fire-smart durability but will evolve into a rich maroon patina over time. A large, elevated patio with ceramic tile invites outdoor living in all seasons. Certified as a passive home, the residence blends sustainability w/ sophistication. Built by HR Pacific this property ensures quality at every turn. Large Crawl Space. This is a rare opportunity to own a globally recognized architectural residence in one of BC's most scenic & serene settings. Book your private tour today & experience
